Spring Conference Request for Proposals

Northeastern University's Student Affiliates of School Psychology (SASP) Annual Spring Conference will take place on Friday, May 14, 2010 in Boston, MA. To highlight graduate student research we have added a student poster presentation to our workshop. To be considered for this conference students must be at least co-author on the poster. Posters can be empirical or qualitative research, case studies, thorough literature reviews, etc. We are welcoming student poster presentation proposals now and will accept submissions until Friday, April 16, 2010. Please submit your proposal to Christina Mulé at mule.c@neu.edu.
